

Sticky Knowledge	Key Vocabulary
• To know how to recognise that we can count and compare objects using tally charts. • To know how to recognise that objects can be represented as pictures. • To know how to create a pictogram. • To know how to select objects from attributes. • To know how to recognise that people can be described by attributes. • To explain that we can present information using a computer.	Data, tally chart, pictogram, input, collect, conclusion, computer, present, attribute
National Curriculum Coverage
Information Technology
✓ Use a tally chart to collect data on a device ✓ Show how to enter data on a device. ✓ Use a device to view data in different formats. ✓ Use pictograms to answer single-attribute questions. ✓ Use a computer to answer comparison questions (graphs, tables) ✓ Explain how to present information using a device. ✓ Use a computer program to present information in different ways (table, pictogram, tally chart)	