

Sticky Knowledge	Key Vocabulary
• To know how to identify questions which can be answered using data. • To know how objects can be described using data. • To know that formulas can be used to produce calculated data. • To know how to apply formulas to data, including duplicating. • To know how to create a spreadsheet to plan an event. • To know how to choose suitable ways to present data.	Spreadsheets, data, questions, operations, input, output, duplication
National Curriculum Coverage
Information Technology
✓ Identify questions that can be answered using data. ✓ Outline what makes good questions to answer with data. ✓ Propose simple, relevant questions that can be answered using data. ✓ Explain that objects can be described using data and what an item of data is. ✓ Explain that computers deal with different data types in different ways. ✓ Outline that there are different software tools to work with data. ✓ Explain that formulas can be used to produce calculated data. ✓ Recognise that data can be calculated using different operations and explain why data should be organised. ✓ Recognise that changing inputs also changes outputs. ✓ Apply formulas to data, including duplication. ✓ Evaluate results in comparison to the question asked and choose suitable ways to represent data.	